1. TENG Hsiao-p'ing, political commissar of the 2 Field Army, and CH'EN Keng, chairman of Yunnan, have signed an agreement with the Burmese Communists as follows:
 - a. The Chinese Communists will supply the Burmese Communists with light and heavy infantry weapons, ammunition and military supplies.
 - b. The Chinese Communists will send political workers to assist Burmese troops.
 - c. The Burmese Communists will advance north to the Yinto (薩多) Lake area and the Yunnan border to establish a base there. They will then be prepared to occupy the northern area of Wentso (溫佐) as far as the Mytkyina Railway and thus be in a position to receive supplies from the Chinese Communists.
 2. The Burmese Communists have sent Te-ch'in-tan-tun (德欽丹敦) as their representative to the Chinese Communists in Kunming.
- 51X1A 1. [REDACTED] Comment. Source reported that cooperation between the Chinese and Burmese Communists had become closer since the start of LI Mi's counter attacks in Yunnan. See [REDACTED] for a similar speculation on Sino-Burmese action to curb LI Mi's influence in the border area.
